

GUIDE OF RESTAURANTS

There are many restaurants in the area of Paseo Marítimo and the square Ingeniero La Cierva with good food. You can also find some of them of fast food but also some with typical andalusian food. Here goes some of them:

NEAR HOTELS (PASEO MARÍTIMO AND AVENIDA)

Arte Serrano: Paseo Marítimo 2. Andalusian food of every type (meat and fish).

La Tienda de Vélez: Avenida Cayetano del Toro 17 (in front of McDonald's). Andalusian and International food of every type (meat and fish).

BarraSiete: Avenida de Amílcar Barca 17, corner of Callejón del Blanco. Typical food from Cadiz but with a modern viewpoint. You have to try ensaladilla de gambas and dorada frita.

Arsenio Manila: Paseo Marítimo 12. Mediterranean food.

CITY CENTER (ANCIENT CADIZ)

El Faro de Cádiz: Calle San Félix 15. Very good. If you take a table, it is a little bit expensive, however you can eat at the bar at a normal price.

El Balandro: Alameda Apodaca 22. Mediterranean food.

Casa Manteca: Calle del Corralón de los Carros 66 (barrio de la Viña). Typical place. For taking tapas.

Freiduría Las Flores: Plaza Topete 4 (Plaza de las flores). Typical fried fish from Cadiz. Recommended.

Sopranis: Calle Sopranis 5 (near Ayuntamiento). Modern food.

La Curiosidad de Mauro Barreiro: Calle Real 208. Near San Antonio Square. The chef got one Michelin star. Andalusian-softicated food but at a reasonable price.
